

BEST SPORTING PAGE IN NEW YORK

FOOTBALL SEASON IS ENDED TO-DAY.

ALL-AMERICAN FOOTBALL TEAM OF 1906 SELECTED

HERE IS AN INVINCIBLE QUARTET OF BACKS.

Wister Made Most Gains on the Forward Pass

TAD JONES
YALE
QUARTERBACK and CAPTAIN

BEST FOOTBALL PLAYS OF SEASON MADE BY ALL-AMERICAN PLAYERS

Team. He was talked of for captain in the close of last season, when he played on the Varsity as tackle. But the fact that he had not taken a full course at Yale spoiled his chances of leading this year's Yale team. Forbe did not let this stand in the way of his

W. HOCKENBERGER, KNOWN familiarly at Yale as "Hock," besides cutting in time as a football player has also found it necessary to do odd jobs to keep himself in food and clothing and provide for the other necessities of his education at Yale. H.

W. F. KNOX, WHO HAS BEEN regarded at Yale as the most brilliant of the backs, is one of the kind of football players who makes games interesting. He prepared for Yale at the Thompson gave the game with but a few minutes of play, almost alone scored. He is twenty-two years old, weighs 185 pounds and measures six feet one inch. He will probably soon be chosen captain of next year's squad.

right tackle, is another phenomenon. Pullen is a big fellow with a shock of red hair. In every game played the spectators could see that red topknot tearing and plunging through all obstacles as if they had been made of applaud in a Broadway playhouse.

See To-morrow's SUNDAY
WORLD.

1